

Links to Grants Databases and Other Fundraising Resources

Source: Compiled by Community Food Centres Canada

Having a sense of good funding opportunities is crucial to a solid fundraising program. Ranging from free to expensive, there are lots of resources available to help navigate the landscape of available grants in Canada. Below we've compiled links to potential funding opportunities, resources and more.

- Association of Fundraising Professionals
Association of Fundraising Professionals works to advance philanthropy through advocacy, research, education and certification programs. The association fosters development and growth of fundraising professionals and promotes high ethical standards in the fundraising profession.
www.afpnet.org
- Canadian Charity Law
Canadian Charity Law assists Canadian charities, their staff and boards of directors, to understand their legal and ethical obligations when operating a Canadian registered charity.
www.canadiancharitylaw.ca
- Charity Village
Charity Village has wide array of resources for individuals and organizations in the non-profit sector recruiting. In addition to information on communications, volunteer engagement, HR and management, the site has an extensive area on fundraising from capital campaigns to corporate giving.
www.charityvillage.com
- Grant Connect
Grant Connect, Imagine Canada's new research tool, provides searchable, detailed information on all Canadian grant making foundations, hundreds of corporate community investment programs, as well as government funding programs and American foundations that will fund Canadian charities. Grant Connect is available through some public libraries and provides discounted rates for small non-profits.
www.grantconnect.ca

community food centres
CANADA good food is just the beginning

- Hilborn

From an independent Canadian perspective, Hilborn provides information on fundraising, marketing, communications, management and board development. In addition, their services include semi-monthly newsletters, workshops and webinars, and help with planned giving.

www.charityinfo.ca

- KCI Philanthropy

KCI is a great resource to get the big picture of fundraising in Canada. Their site includes the latest trends, listings of recent national major gifts, presentations from major fundraising conferences, sample job proposals and recruitment resources, fundraising and communications strategies, documents on organizational health & development and more.

www.kciphilanthropy.com